

Daily Schedule

Upton Farm and Forest camp is for 9-16 year old children who like to be outdoors and work with their hands, while learning about solar power, New England history and nature.

In the morning campers discover their own ingenuity using historic hand tools and modern solar powered equipment. Using wood from our forest, stone from our stone walls and historical soft iron from the farm, children make practical, useful items for the home and outside, such as tool boxes, stools, glove and coat racks, nets for insect collecting and plant presses.

The afternoons are spent exploring the forest, fields, beaver pond, trails and streams of the 200 acre site. Expect to see lots of wildlife, blueberries, and flowers while taking Captain the alpaca for a hike.
